TO: His Honor Judge McKittrick,

U.S. Bankruptcy Court
District of Oregon
1001 SW 5th Ave #700
Portland, OR 97204

CASE: 16-bk-33185

Your Honor -

I am writing by way of apology for the extreme annoyance which I might have expressed at the hearing of May 1st.

However, the amount of intentional misdirection the Court tolerates from counsels Henderson, Arnot and Blackledge is outrageous and absurd.

Hopefully, the Court caught the irony of the May 1st hearing.

I applied for an evidentiary hearing. I intended zealously to question Mr. Arnot and Mr. Blackledge regarding the manner in which they have "milked" and misappropriated more than $750,000 from my estate.

Rather than an evidentiary hearing where testimony is elicited from the parties and witnesses – your honor testified as to what great a work of annotation had been submitted. "Very best in 30 years," I believe you said.

Thereafter, Mr. Arnot testified about the difficulty of his efforts because I, the debtor, sought to protect my rights and post-petition property.

Mr. Blackledge testified further that the reason that he was justified in his demand for what has now reached $250,000 of Court approved payments is just that I have challenged each and every effort by the Trustee for more compensation.

Of course, Mr. Blackledge did not mention the 1 ½ hours of time which he charged the estate for the part of one telephone call wherein he related all about the horrible death of his daughter. Likewise, there was only silence as to his work career in and around Singapore – another hour charged to the estate. Also, Mr. Blackledge has made charges to the estate for the many, many times he has emphasized the strength of his friendship with the Court and also the braggadocio that he is a very honest man.

Unfortunately, contrary to the standards of American justice, none of this triumvirate of testimony was allowed to be rebutted by cross-examination or through my testimonial response to what I characterize as the trustee and his counsel's thievery, intentional abuse of Bankruptcy process and deliberate fabrications of time spent on this case.

In sum, I still suggest that complete investigation of the fictional account which seeks to extract, what now reaches $250,000, from my estate is unquestionably appropriate.

Most Respectfully,

Dated May 5 / 2019 /s/ signed electronically Peter Szanto
